TRUST FUNDS.

We find the several funds belonging to the town are loaned in part to individuals, and secured by good notes, and held in part by the town as follows :

Public Land Fund.

Loaned in full,	69.00
-----------------	-------

Parsonage Fund.

Amount loaned,	116.00
----------------	--------

Amount held (or used by town,)	255.00
--------------------------------	--------

	371.00
--	--------

School Fund.

Amount loaned,	562.00
----------------	--------

Amount held by town as last year,	51.00
-----------------------------------	-------

	613.00
--	--------

Literary Fund.

Amount loaned,	1,163.00
----------------	----------

Amount held by town,	561.34
----------------------	--------

	1,724.34
--	----------

Whole amount of funds,	2,777.34

The condition of the Public Land, Parsonage and School Funds is the same as last year and year before, but now more fully reported. The Literary money is not a "trust fund," though nothing but the interest of it was expended by the town for years, while the amount was constantly increasing by annual additions from the State Treasury arising from tax on banks. For the last few years this fund has been decreasing by distributions of part of the principal to the several School Districts, agreeably to vote of the town.

Your Committee find the accounts of the Selectmen well kept, and the payments and expenditures properly vouched.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. H. HARRIMAN,	} Committee.
SAMUEL W. COLBY,
